

VASART 2010 Summit

Join Us on Friday, June 4th!

Have you wondered how to start a Community Animal Response Team (CART)? This is your opportunity to meet others involved on the local and state level that are preparing their communities to provide support to the Commonwealth of Virginia in responding to disasters affecting animals.

The Virginia State Animal Response Team will be sponsoring a training day on June 4, 2010 at the John Tyler Community College in Chester, Virginia. Join us and make a difference in your community. Summit registration information is included on the back of this form. REGISTER EARLY. There is limited seating available.
